| "Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled,
as to console;
To be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive,
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life." St. Francis | | |

"Take time to think, it is the source of power.
Take time to play, it is the secret of perpetual youth.
Take time to laugh, it is the music of the soul.
Take time to love and be loved, it is a God given privilege."

Mae: "Let me live in a house by the side of the road
 and be a friend to man.
 Friends are the flowers in the garden of life."
 Author unknown

Henry: "Consecration does not confer ownership, it presumes it.
 It is not in order to be His, but because we are His,
 that we yield up our lives. It is purchase that gives title;
 delivery simply gives possession. The question is not do I belong to God? But have I yielded to God that which already belongs to Him?" J. H. McConkey

"Locks keep out only the honest."
Irish proverb

"Two things are bad for the heart -- running up stairs and running down people."
Bernard M. Baruch

"Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do which must be done whether you like it or not. Being forced to work, and forced to do your best, will breed in you temperance, self control, diligence, strength of will, contentment, and a hundred other virtues which the idle never know."
Charles Kingsley

Pennsylvania German sayings and proverbs:

"Waer net haert muss fuhle" --
He who won't hear must feel (suffer the consequences).

"Morgen Stund hat Gold im Mund"
The morning hour has gold in the mouth.
(The early bird catches the worm.)

"Gebrotne dauve flie'e em net ins Maul."
Roasted pigeons do not fly into one's mouth.

"Was mer net wees, macht em net hees."
What we don't know will not make us feel hot (bother us).

"War einmal lügt, dem glaubt man nicht, un wen er schon die Wahrheit spricht." Who once has lied, will not be believed even if he tells the truth.

"Waer's glene nicht erd, ist es grosse nicht wert."
Who does not value little is not worthy of much.

"Du kommst mir g'schliche."
You come sneaking to me. (I won't be taken in or you can't talk me into it.)

"Ich schmeiss dir amoll a Stee in de Garte."
Sometime I'll throw a stone into your garden.
(Said to one who does you a favour)

"Du kannst's in der Schanstee schreiba."
You can write it into the chimney.
(Said to a person to whom you do a favour and he thanks you for it
-- in the chimney it will not be errased.)

"Du brennsht a loch in de Dag."
You burn a hole into the day. (if a light is left on in the daytime)

"Hexe Schuss" A sharp pain.

One takes a hold of another one's ears and says,
"Was freesa die Gens?" "What do the geese eat?"
Victim answers, "Haver und Glay, "Oats and clover, Loss mei gleene Ohre geh." Let my little ears go."

"Er denkt sei sach." He keeps his thinking to himself.

A Lullaby

"Schlof, Bubly, Schlof; der Doddy hüt die Schof;
Die Mommy hüt die rota Kùh, un kommt net heim bis Moya früh;
Schlof, Bubly, Schlof."

Sleep, baby, sleep; father guards the sheep;
Mother guards the red cow, and doesn't come home until tomorrow morning;
Sleep, baby, sleep.

FAMILY II

JOSEPH K. YANTZI

MARY (BENDER), MARY (LICHTI)(KROPF), AND ANNA (SCHWARTZENTRUBER)(BENDER)

Joseph K. Yantzi was born on March 10, 1852, probably while the family was living in Bridgeport (then called Lancaster) in Waterloo Township. His father no doubt was working in the flour and grist mill operated by Elias Eby and Barnabas Devitt. Joseph was the fourth child born to Michael B. Yantzi and Jacobena Kennel, but Barbara and John died in infancy, making Joseph the second oldest living child. His nickname was "Sep."

By the time of the 1861 census, the family was living in Baden. In the early 1860s Michael moved his family to Sebringville where he was also engaged in milling. Unfortunately, Michael died in 1865 when Joseph was only 13 years old.

Joseph's son Aaron recalled his father saying that he walked from Sebringville to Baden on Monday morning, arriving there at 7 o'clock in the morning to do carpenter work. On Saturday evening he walked back to Sebringville for what was left of the weekend. After Michael's death the family moved back to Baden, living near the Sand Hills. By 1871 they were in East Zorra, across the road from the Lutheran church at the corner of the 16th line.

In 1881 Joseph married Mary Bender, daughter of John Bender and Catherine Miller. Veronica and John were born to this marriage. Mary died in 1889. Joseph married Mary Lichti, widow of Solomon N. Kropf. She had five living children. This Mary died in 1894 without having born any children to Joseph. Joseph married the third time, to Anna Schwartzentruber, widow of Noah M. Bender, with three living children. Anna and Joseph had two sons, Joseph and Aaron.

Joseph was a very tall man, and one time they lived in a house where the door was so low he had to stoop when he went in. People also found it hard to keep up with him. Joseph was a carpenter by trade. Aaron said he was a very orderly man. He had a place for everything, and everything was in its place. He always kept his tools locked in his trunk, because he didn't want anyone fooling around with them. Consequently, his sons were not good at carpentry.

In about 1904 Joseph built a house at the corner of the 15th line and the townline -- where Mahlon Roth later lived. There used to be funeral chapel across the road from the cemetery at the 19th line. They dismantled this chapel and used the lumber to build the house. The cash outlay for the house was $400. Aaron was about a year old when they moved into the house.

Joseph had about 32 acres across the road in South Easthope Township for some time. They pastured their cows along the roadside. Aaron remembered their horses Beauty and Billy. They would run whenever a car passed.

Joseph died on June 27, 1926 at the age of 74; Anna in 1934. They are buried in the East Zorra Mennonite Cemetery. Their son Aaron, was the only one living of the second generation when this information was being gathered. He died on April 26, 1991, just before the book was printed.

Joseph's oldest children, Fanny and John, left for Colorado about 1910. When they came back five years later, they said they wouldn't want to live here anymore. In Colorado there was room to breathe. Later, however, Fanny said it was fine while you are young but when you get older you'd like to come back and no longer can. Fanny married Amos Birkey. John married a Canadian girl, Katie Schwartzentruber, and they eventually settled in Michigan.

Sons Joseph and Aaron remained in the home community. Aaron married in 1929 -- just in time for the Great Depression! In order to help make ends meet, he ordered fish, picked them up the station at five cents a pound. He peddled them for ten cents a pound, and by chore time he had them all sold. In spite of this, he could no longer pay the telephone bills; so he called the company to take out the phone. They simply disconnected it, and they were without its use for two years. He was also ready to give up the farm, but his creditor encouraged him to keep on even when he couldn't pay all the interest when it came due.

FAMILY II
 JOSEPH K. YANTZI
 MARY (BENDER), MARY (LICHTI)(KROPF), AND ANNA (SCHWARTZENTRUBER)(BENDER)

The family records from the Joseph K. Yantzi Bible are transcribed and translated here -- first the marriage certificate of the first marriage, then the births of the children, Joseph and the spouses along with the marriages to the second and third spouses. Under the deaths are found those of the three spouses.
