THE FARM BELGRAD
Residence of the Christian Jantzi Family
Burial Place of Michael Jantzi I

The farm Belgrad is the location of Michael Jantzi I's death and burial. He died in 1822 at the age of 103. It was through Michael Jantzi, grandson of Michael Jantzi I (through his son Christian) that we were able to locate the place. Michael had written the date and place of his birth in his family Bible. (This Michael was the grandfather of Bishop Moses O. Jantzi of Baden.) It was the Christian Jantzi family which continued to live at Belgrad until their emigration to Lewis County, New York and to Ontario.

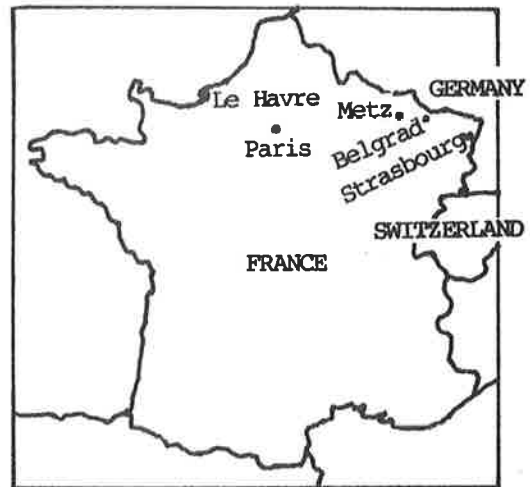

The farm is located near the village of Bistroff, and it is here that one finds the records of birth, marriage and death, as well as at the archives in the city of Metz. This area is still known as Lorraine, although the department in which the Jantzi family is found is called Moselle with the capital at Metz. The map on page 4 gives the location of this farm as well as most of the other places mentioned in connection with the extended Jantzi family Belgrad is located 25 to 30 kilometers from the German border. Between Belgrad and Germany is the town of St. Avold and the several other villages in which Michael Jantzi II and Michael Jantzi III operated various mills.

Belgrad (also spelled Bellegrade and several other variations) is found at the end of a long lane. Two other farms, one on either side of the lane, are found close to the road. The buildings at Belgrad are built on four sides around a central courtyard. They are very old, and no doubt are much the same as they were when the Jantzis lived there.

In 1985 Joan (Kennell) and her husband Brian Kirk and their family visited the farm. At that time an elderly couple by the name of Bollman was residing there. Mrs. Bollman said she had found a plaque with the name Jantzi. Unfortunately, she had destroyed it! She showed the Kirks the garden and the grove of trees where the burial ground is believed to be. If there had ever been any markers they would have been removed during the war so that no one would know there were burials there. People would open up graves just to get the metal hinges from coffins. Metal was so badly needed for the war effort.

Bistroff is a small country village almost as isolated as the farm. It is located on a narrow connecting road. In the centre of the village is an old Catholic church. Very old farm buildings (house and barn attached) make up most of the buildings in the village. Probably both Belgrad and Bistroff have changed little since the Jantzis left.

This view of the farm Belgrad is taken about half way in the lane

THE FARM BELGRAD

The buildings are built on four sides of a central courtyard. The part with the shuttered windows are the living quarters.

The cobblestones in front of the living quarters and the gate leading to the garden and burial ground.

The grove of trees marks the burial ground of the Jantzi family and others who resided on this farm.

STORY OF THE TORNADO AT THURMAN, COLORADO

On August 10, 1924 a tornado struck the Henry Kuhns home in Thurman Colorado where a number of people had gathered for Sunday dinner. John Yantzi, son of Joseph K. Yantzi, wrote an account of the tragedy in the Gospel Herald, which appeared in the September 4th issue, and which we are reproducing below.

Most of the dead were taken to the David Rediger home where they were prepared for the funeral and burial. Lydia Stutzman, daughter of David and Barbara (Ruby) Rediger, was not quite ten years old. In her book, My Escape from "Self" and Accepted in the Beloved, she gives the account of her memories of that event.

AN UNEXPECTED CALL

By John B Yantzi

For the Gospel Herald.

Dear Brethren and Sisters, Greet in the blessed name of Jesus Christ, who doeth all things well. "Blessed be the name of the Lord."

On Sunday, Aug. 10, this community was visited by a tornado which has left many sorrows and heart-breaks in its wake. At about 2:30 in the afternoon, what at first appeared like a huge whirlwind was slowly making its way in the direction of the home of Bro. Henry Kuhns, to which a few of the friends and neighbors had gathered for Sunday dinner. The men folks had left just a little while previous in two cars to see the effects of a tornado which had just a little while before passed through a mile and a half north of the Kuhns home. They returned in all haste, but when only a few hundred feet from the buildings, saw them going into the air, completely wrecking the home. The very sad feature was that seventeen persons, women and children, were in the house at the time. Nearly all of the buildings were completely demolished, also three cars. Ten persons were almost instantly killed, and seven injured.

The dead are: Sister Maggie Kuhns, aged 40 years; Stella Kuhns, aged 8; Delmar Kuhns, aged 6; Sister Nellie Birky, aged 14; Blanche Yoder, aged 10; Vera Ruth Yoder, aged 9; Robert Stanley Yoder, aged 7; Ray Vernon Yoder, one year old, Fern Garret, aged 14; Zedda Garret, aged 9.

The wounded are: Mrs. Leola Gar-

GOSPEL HERALD

ret. Sister Belva Yoder, Sister Velma Hoffman, Sister Mary Kuhns, Sister Tillie Birky, little Lucile Kuhns, four years old, and Laura Kuhns, an infant baby one month old.

The dead were all removed from the wreckage to the home of Bro. David Rediger. The wounded were taken care of by the neighbors.

The funeral services were held Wednesday forenoon, Aug. 13, from the home of Bro. David Rediger and thence to the Mennonite Church near Thurman, Colo., and were buried in the cemetery adjoining, except those of Fern and Zedda Garret who were taken in the afternoon of the same day to Flagler, Colo., and buried in the Flagler Cemetery.

The funeral was the largest that this community has ever witnessed, over a thousand people being present from far and wide to show their love and respect to the departed. Again the words have forcibly rung in our ears, "For in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." "Watch and pray."

Flagler, Colo.

EAST ZORRA (AMISH) MENNONITE CHURCH

The East Zorra (Amish) Mennonite Church has been a very important part of the Yantzi family's experience following the death of Michael B. Yantzi in 1865. Jacobena Yantzi's brother, John Kennel, had settled in East Zorra, and no doubt this is the reason she eventually also came to East Zorra with her family.

The East Zorra/South Easthope Amish Mennonite Congregation was organized in 1837 following the settlement of several families in these two townships. Most of them were recent arrivals from Europe but were soon joined by second generation families from Wilmot. There were a few ordained leaders among the immigrants and others were ordained in 1849 and 1853. Bishop oversight came from the older congregation in Wilmot until 1854. Joseph Ruby was one of those ordained in 1853, and in 1854 he was chosen as bishop. In 1872 Michael K. Yantzi married Bishop Ruby's daughter, Barbara, and in 1875 Elizabeth Yantzi married his son Joseph.

It was during the latter part of Joseph Ruby's ministry that East Zorra built the first Amish Mennonite meetinghouse in Canada. The year was 1883. Joseph Ruby's sons-in-law, Jacob M. Bender and Michael K. Yantzi were ordained minister and deacon, respectively, the same year. At the death of Jacob M. Bender in 1917, Michael K. Yantzi became the bishop. His death in 1917, however, cut short his ministry.

Daniel S. Iutzi succeeded Michael K. Yantzi as bishop and served the East Zorra congregation in that capacity until the ordination of Henry Yantzi, grandson of Michael K., to that office in 1948. Henry had been ordained deacon in 1940 and minister in 1947. Henry then served the congregation as bishop until all ministers were given the right to perform baptisms and marriages, and until the newly-organized congregation at Hillcrest called him to serve there in 1964.

Other congregations spawned by East Zorra are Cassel, Tavistock, and Maple Grove, with some support given also in the founding of congregations at Stratford (Avon) and Nairn. The term "Amish" was dropped by action of Conference in the year 1964/65.
