Notes for ABRAHAM BITSCHÉ:

There is one error which should be corrected. On Page 142, of the Memorial History of Peter Bitsche, family no. 538, the following item appears, "Abraham died Sept. 18, 1833, and is buried in Somerset Co., PA., on the farm now owned by John D. Yoder." This Abraham was the second son of the first Peter Bitsche. The farm referred to above was the original Bitsche land. But in the old Bitsche book owned and used by the late, Jonas B. Miller, Grantsville, MD. , a footnote penned on this page by him indicates that Abraham is buried on the farm near West Salisbury, in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, where he had settled in 1805. This statement was verified by a personal visit to the Abraham Bitsche farm by Mr. and Mrs. Ivan J. Miller of Grantsville, Md. (Ivan is a son of Jonas B. Miller). They found in the family burial plot, a distinct marker for the graves of Abraham and his wife, Barbara, and for a number of their descendants.

She was born November 10, 1798, and died February 20, 1881 in Garrett County, Maryland.

Notes for JOHN P. BITSCHÉ:

On the back of a postcard (the front of which has a photo of Jonas J. Beachy), in the handwriting of Leo J. Beachy is written: "Grandfather John Beachy died in a hotel at Grantsville at the present stand of the National Hotel on April 22 or 23, 1852, the same year when my father became 21 years old on February 6th." John and his son, Jonas, were making a trip to Cumberland. (Postcard owned by Maxine (Beachy) Broadwater.) He was 73 years of age at the time of his death.

"John was very industrious, thrifty and clear-headed throughout life, and accumulated quite an estate, especially in lands in the northern part of Garrett county, which with much personal property descended to his nine living children: Abraham J., Christian J., Samuel J., John J., Jonas J., Gideon J., Elizabeth, Sarah, and Susan. He was a man of great stature and enormous physical strength. He had the power of an ordinary horse. He once slew a troublesome wolf by dashing its brains out against a tree. But with all, he was strictly a man of peace. His religion, if nothing else, held him to that. Still he had his temptations in the times when a great many disputes were settled or supposed to be settled by rough and tumble fights." The above taken from "An Eulogy by Jacob Brown", written in 1896.

John Beachy son of Peter Beachy II married Christina Livengood sister of Veronica "Fanny" Livengood who married Abraham Beachy

Notes for ELIZABETH P. BITSCHÉ:

There are questions on the death date of Elizabeth. "Memorial History of Peter Bitsche" gives her death as September, 1874. "Allegheny County Maryland Lutheran Church 1801-1921, Bible and Cemetery Records" Vol. IV, Page 288 records: "Daniel Keim born June 7, 1800, died March 6, 1866, aged 66 years, 4 months, 29 days, married Elizabeth Beachy born January 9, 1801, died Sept. 1857, aged 56 years, daughter of Peter and Sally Blauman Beachy." Which is correct?

He married (2) MATILDA YOEDER March 17, 1881 in Somerset Co., PA, daughter of HENRY YOEDER and UNKNOWN.

Notes for ABRAHAM P. BEACHEY:

The Beachey family have borne an important part in the settlement and development of a portion of Somerset County, Penn., as they were among the early settlers.

Abraham P. Beachey, who bears the name of his grandfather, who was the first one of the family to locate in this County, is a son of Peter A. and Ann (Livengood) Beachey. He was born January 23, 1828, and reared on the old homestead which is now in his possession, and he resided in the old stone house, around which cling so many tender associations and recollections, which was built by his grandfather, in 1809. But few farms in the county have remained intact in the possession of a member of the family for three generations, as has this home-farm.

Mr. Beachey attended the subscription school of the well-known Jost. J. Stutzman, when a humble log cabin protected him and his pupils from the inclemency of the weather, and thus obtained a common school education. In those early days no idlers could be found in the community, and, as a consequence, Mr. Beachey was early taught habits of industry and thrift, which have resulted in his financial advancement.

Having worked his father's farm of two hundred and forty acres on shares for three years, it was purchased by him, and from this time on he has been uniformly successful in his career as a farmer. To his original purchase he added others, until he at one time was the owner of some six hundred acres, and engaged extensively in general farming, cattle raising and dairying. He and his brother, John W. jointly possessed two hundred and fifty-seven acres adjoining Salisbury, on the south, they having laid out a portion of the farm into city lots, now graced by numerous dwellings.

Mr. Beachey also possessed a section of fine farming land in the State of Nebraska, and was one of the wealthy, honored and respected citizens of his native place. He was a man of sterling worth, and had he been ambitious for political honors, could have filled important offices. But, he refused all overtures looking toward political preferment, preferring the quiet of home life with its pleasant surroundings, to a public one. A staunch friend of education, he held the office of school director for 17 years, and materially assisted in maintaining good schools.

66. BISHOP NOAH P.⁸ BEACHY (PETER M. BEACHY⁷ (TWIN), MOSES P.⁶ BEACHY, PETER⁵ BITSCHÉ II, PETER⁴, PETER³ BUTTSCHY, PETER² BIETTSCHI, HANS¹) was born February 09, 1854 in Tuscarawas Co., OH, and died April 29, 1942 in Sarasota, Sarasota County, Florida. He married BARBARA FREY February 24, 1876 in Holmes County, OH, daughter of SAMUEL FREY and GERTRUDE HERSHBERGER. She was born August 12, 1859 in Baltic, Holmes Co., Ohio, and died April 17, 1937 in Holmes Co., OH.

Notes for BISHOP NOAH P. BEACHY:

They started housekeeping on a farm northeast of Walnut Creek, Ohio., where they resided for a few years, then moved on the old Jonathan Yoder farm later occupied by Moses E. Troyer and Levi J. Yoder. About the year 1890 they moved on the adjoining farm where he resided, and was taken care of by his daughter and son-in-law, Abe M. Troyers, until the last few years of his life when he had his home with his daughter and son-in-law, Henry J. Hostetler, of Mt. Hope, Ohio. At the time of his death he had been confined to the house due to a broken leg and sickness.

He was a member of the Old Order Amish Mennonite Church in which he had been ordained a minister on May 9, 1878, and a bishop October 8, 1895.

His wife died April 17, 1937. They lived in matrimony 61 years, 1 month, and 24 days. He was a minister 63 years, 11 months, and 20 days.

All of his surviving children were present at the funeral. Besides his wife, 3 children (Noah, Jr., Mrs. Abe J. Mast, and Mrs. Sam M. Miller) preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held at his old home place, now owned by Val A. Hershberger and occupied by John G. Yoder, two and one-half miles southeast of Walnut Creek. Burial took place in the Kaufman Cemetery.

137. NOAH E.¹⁰ BEACHY (ELIAS N.⁹, NOAH P.⁸, PETER M. BEACHY⁷ (TWIN), MOSES P.⁶ BEACHY, PETER⁵ BITSCHÉ II, PETER⁴, PETER³ BUTTSCHY, PETER² BIETTSCHI, HANS¹) was born September 03, 1899 in Walnut Creek, Holmes Co., OH, and died October 18, 1990 in Meadville, Crawford Co., PA. He married LYDIAN MILLER January 19, 1922 in Lake Twp., Stark Co., OH, daughter of JONI MILLER and NANCY TROYER. She was born June 18, 1901 in Middlefield, Geauga Co., OH, and died July 07, 1982 in Canton., Stark Co., OH.

Notes for NOAH E. BEACHY:

He was a very quiet man. Musically gifted he often led singing in the Amish church services as a song leader and led his family in singing in their home in the evening during devotional time just prior to bedtime. This is a talent possessed by many in the Beachy family. He remained faithful to his Amish beliefs throughout his lifetime.

He worked for F.E. Schumaker Co., at their construction plant business located in Hartville, Ohio. He was employed in the door and screen door production department. He was a faithful employee for more than 50 years. He was also a farmer during his early married life. Later the sons took over the farming.

He lived to be 91 years 1 month and 15 days of age. He was survived by four daughters, eight sons. He was predeceased by his wife, Lydian (Miller) and two sons, Nelson Howard and Vernon David. He was also survived by 57 grandchildren and many great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

His eyesight was affected by the genetically inherited disease of Macular Degeneration and he was legally blind during the last decade of his life. Unable to read his Bible during his later years he listened to it being read on tapes.

He lived with his eldest living son, Eli Beachy in Franklin, Kentucky, part of each year and a daughter, Mrs. Willis (Nancy) Troyer in Centerville, Pennsylvania, during other times, in his declining years. He owned a home in Hartville, where he lived in the summer until he could no longer live alone; and in Sarasota, Florida, where the son or daughter would bring him, and live with him, during the winters following the death of his wife, Lydian in 1982.

Years earlier he had survived cancer of the stomach, but did not survive intestinal blockage necessitating surgery, from which he never recovered. He felt that it was unnecessary for the surgery, but did submit to it. His foremost desire was to join his wife in eternity. With daughter, Nancy, at his bedside that morning he quietly slipped away to the other shore.

His funeral and burial were held at the King Church located on King Church Road, Hartville, Ohio. He was laid to rest beside of his wife, Lydian. Many other family members are also interred in this cemetery.

More About NOAH E. BEACHY:

Burial: October 21, 1990, King Church Cemetery, Hartville, Stark Co., OH

Cause of Death: Intestinal blockage.

Medical Information: Surgery was performed to remove the blockage, but his condition deteriorated resulting in his death.

Notes for LYDIAN MILLER:

She died of Congestive Heart Failure at Aultman Hospital, Canton, Stark County, Ohio at the age of 81 years 19 days. She is survived by her husband, four daughters, and nine sons. In addition she is survived by 57 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by one son, Nelson Howard Beachy. She is buried in Walnut Grove Cemetery, King Church Road, Hartville, Ohio.

Family members all state that she was a very loving person. Very capable of expressing that love to her family and friends. All 14 of her children carried this characteristic in their own personalities, thus passing it on to their own individual children. A very worthy trait to learn and to teach to those whom we love, care for and live with.

Throughout her life she was always a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, homemaker and friend. Whenever someone in the community had needs during times of death or sickness she was always willing to go and offer her help to them.
