Elisha Yancy born Oct 11, 1877, Married to Buena V. Ragland

Emma C. Yancy born Feb 10, 1879 Married to J.F. Edwards

These are Nutes children.

Note: I always wondered why my mother (Virgie Hipp) always said Cousin Zula Gossett and we visited them now and then. I remember the Alfred Yancy (Dock) who only died a few years back, ca 1979 or 1980. He lived at Bruce with his daughter, his son Howard married Daddys (Dwight Hipp) sister, Ethel Fay, they live in Bruce. The Nancy of this famil was Aunt Nan who lived neighbors to us down the road from Daddys. Uncle Phil had Asthma and we could hear him breathing from his house up to ours. He took shots back then. Daddy always said he could never give a shot but he got off with Uncle Phil one day and he was glad to give him one. Fredie Yancy is Crickets father and Aunt Agns still lives in Sarepta (1984) Nute was their father, Gramps brother but I do not remember him, Dick said he did, think he fell dead with heart attact down at the barn. I also remember Virginia Alice, her son Jack Williams w always made our brooms, We would gather the broom corn, strip it and he would take it and make the broom. They lived in Water Valley, Mississippi. Elisha Yancy (they called him Cap), I never did know but did know Aunt Buena, she was still living in Garland, Texas and I visited her when we went to see Aunt Hal and Uncle Collier. Emma C. Yancy lived below the house on Uncle Phils land, never had a husband so he must have died when I was very small. I love to go to her house for her daughter Myrtle played the banjo and could really pick it too, also Aunt Emma

Note: He has William Lowndes Yancy, my fathers "Uncle Bill". Even though Gramps said the L was for nothing I have since heard it really was for Lowndes. Gramps probably never did really know his name. Gramps did go out west for a visit. Gramps wife died in 1913. There is a copy of a letter from this man "Elvie" mother Marie to Uncle Bill in your book

I think Gramps could write better than the rest of the crew, I wonder where or how they learned to write since they hardly ever went to school way back ~~ki~~ those days.

Even way back then this man Elvie was working on his family line just as I am and have been today. He was lucky way back then with finding all of them and getting letters from all also. Now days they will not even answer the letters even some of the first cousings

Sarepta Homecoming

Oct. 9, 1958

Two hundred and sixty came back home from Tenn., Ark., Ala., Indiana, and many towns and villages in Miss. to Sarepta for their first home-coming Sunday.

It was a great reunion filled with joy, and some tears, as some met for the first time in forty years.

And, too, there were many homefolks present to enjoy the day. A fine dinner was spread at the noon hour.

The program was well rendered. Many people took part. The afternoon program consisted of singing.

It was unanimously agreed to make the home-coming an annual affair.

The feature of the program was the history of Sarepta as compiled and read by Jesse Yancy, Jr.

HISTORY OF SAREPTA Jesse L. Yancy, Jr.

May 1 in the beginning of these brief remarks on the history of Sarepta apologize for the inadequate situation that I find myself in, being unable to give you a more complete history. My law practice in the last few weeks has been very heavy with some two weeks of court work involved. This, together with my own inability, has prevented me from giving a more complete report at this time.

To first enlarge upon the history of our community I feel that a few remarks on the history of our county would be enlightening.

Calhoun County was formed from parts of Chickasaw, Yalobusha and Lafayette counties. Sarepta was a part of Lafayette County, while the western and southern portion of Calhoun, as well as the east was formed from Yalobusha and Chickasaw Counties. Through the untiring efforts of the citizens of Calhoun County and the able assistance of the Hon. J. A. Orr, a Representative of Chickasaw County, and formerly of Poplar Springs community, the legislature of Mississippi passed an act in February, 1852, to create the county.

This action was approved by the voters of Calhoun County, on June 8, 1852 and the county was established.

The county seat was at Hartford (now Oldtown) which was later changed to Orrville in honor of J. A. Orr. The name was later changed to Pittsboro in honor of Pittsboro, North Carolina, where two members of the first Board of Police hailed from.

At the time of the creation of the county there were some 8,000 people living in the area. History will reflect that many of these lived north of Schoona and in the Sarepta area.

The first board of supervisors, formerly called the Board of Police, consisted of Albert G. Hallum, Lawrence Brasher, Sidney P. Brantley, John Dowdy, and Hiram Hall. Of these five, Brasher, representing the northern end of the county, were from Pittsboro, N.C., hence the reason for the name.

In reading the early history of Calhoun many names of families from around Sarepta appear. This is especially so in the reading of the various officials of the county.

History informs us that some of earliest settlers to what is now Calhoun County, were J. R. and Henry Bounds who came to this section in the early 1830's and settled west of Pittsboro.

As I have stated in the outset, Sarepta was once a part of Lafayette County, and from history it would appear that it was first settled in the early 1830's. From a search of the old records of land we find the following persons patented land where Sarepta now stands:

US Gov't. to Nancy Church, NE 1-4 Sec. 15, T 11S, R1W, Sept. 9, 1840.

US Gov't to Thomas Copeland, NW 1-4, Nov. 9, 1840.

US Gov't to Samuel Ward, SE 1-1 -269.40, Nov. 1836 (Sarepta)

US Gov't to Thomas McGill, SW 1-1 Nov. 1836 ($345.40).

Early land owners consisted of the following:

1850—A. T. Roane, J. S. Reasons, H. D. McIntosh, J. B. Beasley, J. R. Ferguson, W. C. Redwine, Moses Brooks, E. M. B. Hillhouse, J. B. Jones, B. Lewlling, John Bush, J. A. Duncan, L. L. Spencer.

1860-1880—T. F. Robertson, H. J. Ragland, A. F. Duff, G.W.T. Cox, Arron Shine, Thomas J. Ragland, J. M. Hawkins, J. L. Tedford, R. M. Davis, J. Y. Goode, S. B. Spencer, Johnny Young, Mary Sanders, James Winter, A. W. Green, S. P. Davis, J. B. Miller, T. W. Vance, G. N. Wheeler, W. S. Hudson, J. S. Rogers, Martin Sadler, W. W. Evans.

1880-1900—M. C. Hardin, A. F. Duff, J. L. Sherfield, J. M. Sherfield, D. C. Lamar, A. W. Lamar, J. D. Dill, B.F. Lewelling, Jasper Lewelling, J. A. Glenn, J. M. Glenn, J. W. Dunavant, Newt Yancy, S. B. Freeman, W. C. Pittman.

1900-1920—Zenis Nelms, J. J. Ingram, W. W. Lamar, J. E. Goodwin, Jane Kelly, W. D. Duff, John H. Prewitt, G. W. Riley, J. H. Ballenger, J. P. McLary, E. Zinn, G. W. Stubblefield, Will Grist, J. T. Costner, J. A. Washington, C. E. Hipp, W. A. Hipp, S. B. Sharp, W. L. Yancy, Tom W. E. Powell, John Cooper, J. B. Phillips.

It is interesting to note that on many of the old land descriptions we find frequent reference to the Pontotoc and Coffeeville road mentioned.

In addition to the above we find that Dr. Andrew Roane was one of the pioneer physicians of Calhoun County. He located at Sarepta in 1840 and was the son of Gov. Archibald Roane of Tennessee, who during his administration as governor appointed Andrew Jackson General of Militia in Tenn. One of the first births recorded in Sarepta history, that I have been able to find, was that of Judge Archibald T. Roane who was born at Sarepta on April 17, 1841.

Capt. H. L. Duncan was one of the first educators in Calhoun County and he taught at Sarepta.

Judge Roane was with Forrest in the civil war and very active in Calhoun County politics, as was his brother, Hon. S. M. Roane who served as district attorney.

Sarepta has always been noted for the patriotic manner in which its citizenry rallies to the defense of her state and county. In checking the list of Confederate veterans we find the following men from Sarepta served our beloved South in the war between the states:

- J. H. Barnes, Co. H, 7th Miss. Cal.
- J. A. Brasher, Co., Paris 4th Miss.
- G. W. Burt, 42nd Miss.
- B. F. Hughes, 48th Miss.
- J. L. Ivey, 42nd Miss.
- S. J. Jenkins, 7th Miss.
- L. M. Jenkins, 42nd Miss.
- M. G. Lantrip, Co. F, 42nd Miss.
- Jeff Overby, 42nd Miss.
- A. E. Peden, Co. C, 1st Miss.
- J. N. Phillips, Co. K, 17th Miss.
- Theopolus Rankins, Duff's Ben.
- G. W. Riley, Co. B 36th Ala.

This list is supposed to be correct but of course it only shows the men who gave their address as Sarepta at the time of enlistment and could not possibly include the many others from around Sarepta who served the South's cause so brave and true.

One can check the list of Sarepta's heroes in all the wars from the civil war up through the Korean conflict and quickly discover that our little community has played her role in the defense of our country.

Our people have always been esteemed by their dedication to fair play and honesty. From these red hills have come some of this country's finest citizens. Our people have been primarily farmers, although one easily remembers that this community has and is producing doctors, lawyers, engineers, educators and professional men in all walks of life.

Below is only a partial list of early professional men:

- Preachers, G. W. Riley;
- Teachers, Dr. H. L. Duncan, H. E. Dean, Curt Hartsfield.
- Doctors—Dr. W. H. Reid, Dr. Hardin, Dr. Sherfield, Dr. J. B. Souter, Dr. J. J. Landreth, Dr. J. E. Powell.
- Lawyers—Archibald Roane.
- There were others.

History of Sarepta Field

Co. 'F' Sarepta, Joins Oxford 42nd Regiment

On April 20, 1862, a company of 126 men gathered at Tedfords Gin near Sarepta, Mississippi, to be mustered into the Confederate service and to elect officers.

The company, designated as Company "F", joined the 42nd Mississippi regiment at Oxford, Miss., on May 21, 1862. Hugh R. Miller was elected Colonel of the regiment at the muster there.

Leaving Oxford, the company arrived at Richmond, Va., on July 3, 1862, where they stayed for around a year marching and skirmishing in Virginia and North Carolina.

The company went to Fredericksburg, Va., on June 7, 1863, where they were attached to Davis Brigade of Heth's Division of A. P. Hill's Corps—a part of the main Army of Northern Virginia under Gen. Robert E. Lee for the Gettysburg campaign.

From July 1 through July 3, 1863 the company saw heavy casualties at the Battle of Gettysburg. A partial list of the casualties is:

Killed in action:

- Capt. T. G. Clark
- Lt. James Seals (died shortly after the battle from wounds)
- Albert Clark
- Jonathan Clark
- Emsley J. C. Chrestman
- Elias Chrestman
- Joseph Coade
- James R. Kinney (died of wounds at Gettysburg)
- John J. Patterson
- George Bratton
- Charles Bratton (mortally wounded)
- Jesse Brown (mortally wounded)

Severely Wounded:

- Lawrence Chrestman
- James M. Duncan
- Loula Bagwell

Prior to Oct. 1, 1864, Company "F", 42nd Mississippi Infantry took part in the following battles:

- Gettysburg—July 1-3, 1863
- Falling Waters, Md.—July 14, 1863
- Bristor Station, Oct. 14, 1863
- Wilderness—May 5-6, 1864
- Spotsylvania—May 10-12, 1864
- Hanover Junction—May 23, 1864
- Weldon Railroad—Aug. 18, 1864
- Hatcher's Run—Oct. 27, 1864
- Cold Harbor—June 2-3, 1864
- Fo. McReay—Oct. 1, 1864.

Later official reports probably had them at Petersburg; Five Forks, April 1, 1865; Baylers Creek, Va. April 8, 1865, and Appomattox.

William Lindsey, B. Frank Blalock, George Sadler.

This company took part in the 1st battle of Manassas, Va., and took a prominent part in the battle of Leesburg or "Balls Bluff" the first year of the war, and every member of the company re-enlisted for three years or the war at the expiration of their 12 months service. They took part in the seven days battle around Richmond, and all the battles in Va. and Pa. at the siege of Richmond and surrendered at Appomattox with Gen. Lee's Army. There were 10 of this old company killed in battle. The company received recruits from time to time until there were 155 on the muster roll. There are but few of them now living not more than 10 or 16.

MAGNOLIA GUARDS.

BY BLUEBELL.

'Twas in the year of sixty-one
Our boys donned the gray,
And held themselves in readiness
When called to march away.
"Magnolia Guards," a fitting name,
They would their State protect,
Nor waver when danger appeared,
Nor duty dare neglect.
Each young heart eager, longed to go
To prove a soldier brave;
Each soul burned with a deep desire
His country's name to save.
At last their hearts were satisfied,
Virginia made the call,
And Duncan's school-house closed its doors,
Farewells were said by all.
A lovely day, fair shone the sun
On old Sarepta's hills
May blossoms made the meadows sweet,
And softly sang the rills.
A sadness reigned within our hearts,
A sense of deepest pain,
Not all of these, Sarepta's pride,
Would tread her hills again.
Some mother's son she kissed that day
And held close to her breast,
Would give his life to save his State,
Beneath her sod would rest.

Some sister left in silent tears,
Would hear the news one day,
"He fell among the bravest ones,
He gave his life away."

Some sweetheart dear, some wife will long,
But long in vain for one
At evening when she sits alone
Beside the old hearthstone.

But they were brave, we dared not plead,
We could not bid them stay
When life and honor were at stake,
True souls must lead the way.

The sweet magnolias bloomed and died,
As they had bloomed before;
May blossoms came three times again
'Ere ceased the cannon's roar.

The cause was lost, but brave the men
Who wore the Southern gray,
O, could we twine a wreath today
For each cold brow of clay.

From out her ranks "Magnolia Guards"
Had seen their comrades fall,
Till now had left to wander home
Few had heard the call.

'Tis thirty years and more since then,
And many more have gone
To join their comrades up above,
Where life's an endless dawn.

And to the few, the scattered few,
Whose locks are white with age,
We would a tribute give today
Upon this modest page.

And if an offering we sought
With thrilling memories sweet,
We'd bring magnolia blossoms
And lay them at their feet.

Dear Martha,

After ~~two months~~ <sup>two</sup> ~~months~~ <sup>much</sup> delay, I am finely getting around to sending you some copies concerning the Yancy Family Line which I found here at the office.

There are numerous other documents, letters, etc. in this file that might be of help to you, but a lot of them would not copy, and if you are every down this way, it might be helpful for you to go through this file and make some notes or whatever.

Anyway, I am enclosing some of the documents which I feel might be of most benefit to you, and again, I apologize for the delay in getting this information to you.

Also, I received a telephone call some time back from a Ms. Joan Sanders <sup>K</sup> whose address is 2904 West 25th St., Pine Bluff, Ark. 71603, requesting some information on the Yancy Family Line.

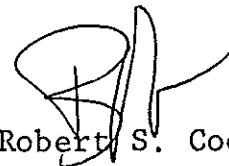

Jesse Jr. seemed to be sure that our Yancy Line descended from Lewis Davis Yancy, who came to Culpepper County, Virginia around the year 1710 from Wales, and descended as follows:

- Lewis Davis Yancy
- Philmon Yancy, Sr.
- Philmon Yancy, Jr.
- Alfred Yancy
- Philip Henry Yancy
- William L. Yancy
- Jesse L. Yancy, Sr.
- Jesse L. Yancy, Jr.

Hopefully this will give you a little more information, and if I can be of further help to you in the future, please advise.

Sinceley yours,

Robert S. Cooper

Mr. Elvie Yancy &amp; Family,

I will answer your letter I received some time ago was glad to hear from you. I am well as could be expected

Hope when these few lines reaches you they will find you enjoying the best of health. I would like the best in the world to be with you today and talk with you. Tom and Chally Yancy got married this winter and Lula one of Barts girls died _____ the leventh 1911, she was borned September 16, 187 . Bart has two children at home now. The children all left him in his old days.

All the conection around here is all well and the 22nd of this March will be my birth day. I will be 87 years old and I can get around very well according to my age.. We have had a very nice winter here. The weather hasent got to zero yet and all the fruit trees has been bloomed out over a month and the farmers around here is getting ready to plant. We have a letter from old Miss very often and all the people there is doing well. Coney Yancy one of Alfred's boys was with us last week. He is located in La at a saw mill. he is shipping clerk and yard foreman and is doing well there. We had a letter from Utah some time ago and they said that winter was surley with them.

Well I will close this time and try and write more next time. So I send my best love and wishes, I remain as ever your Uncle Emory & family lived there at Sarepta as long as I can remember. I always liked their homeplace for it had those huge cedar trees in it. Also one bedroom of the house had paintings on the wall and a pretty fixture hanging from the ceiling. They had this spring near the house where they kept their milk and the water from it was so good. All who passed by would stop and get a drink of the good spring water. At this time, 1984 they are still living there but in failing health. They use to have baseball games in his pasture and a large crowd would always go down to watch that.
