Hi again Dennis,

I am a first cousin of Eulalia Wellden and we have been friends for most of our lives, she is the reason that I started in this project and I do not know nearly as much about the family as her. I don't have much documentation on my family and would have to defer to Eulalia on any question about the family. I have not found any of the names back to my grandfather spelled Y-a-n-c-e-y except for mine and the proof to me is the Tombstones (all spelled Y-a-n-c-y) and things like a notice of the death of William W. Yancy (my fathers brother) which lists the names of survivors as Y-a-n-c-y. The earliest relative that is burried in the Johnson Chapel Cemetery in Morgan County Alabama is Levi Nathaniel Y-a-n-c-y (my grandfather) (see picture of grave marker L.N. Yancy on my web page). I have a copy of a Marriage Certificate of Levi N Yancey and Mattie Goodwin issued Aug 1974 ,which spells the name Y-a-n-c-e-y, and also have a copy of marriage of my great grandfather Floyd Yancy to Elender Eveline Freeman in which the name is spelled Y-a-n-c-y. I don't understand how it came about but it seems to me that the name has been changed from Y-a-n-c-e-y.

Hi Dennis,

My fathers name was Joseph Levi Yancy. I suspect that the spelling of my last name is typical of what has happend to many of our ancestors. When I entered the Army in 1950 I was 17 years old and had a very limited education.

I did not pay attention to some of the papers which I signed and after about a year in the Army someone noticed that when I wrote or signed my name I did not use the "e" and informed me that in all of my military records it was spelled with the "e". After checking with legal advisors aand the state of Alabama I decided that the simplest way was to get a one time change of my birth records.

All of my known relatives spell the name Yancy, also most of the deceased are burried in the same cemetary in Morgan County Alabama (Johnsons Chapel) and all the markers use Yancy. Most of my information in the database came from my cousin Eulalia Wellden and when she gave me the material about 10 years ago some of the names in her documents used the "e" but I found that the grave markers all were spelled Yancy.

Hope that helps.
Joseph Levi Yancey Jr.

OK, That is the fine tuning I mentioned. I am a retired computer technician. But I have taken on a full time Grandfather job babysitting a 9 year old and a 10 month old grand kids. I have to do my work at night or while the 10 month old is napping. I will get it all done somehow.

I will let you know soon about more charts. Right now I must make as much room as I can on my AOL account and I am in the process of refinishing my other projects.

Hope we can find a way to put several of them online. I did get one of those charts from you for my line a ehile back by mail.

Thanks Joe..

Thanks for the compliments about the Web Pages.

If you would like to find out more information about your family Dennis Yancey (dyancey@miami.edu) has many files and documents on the Yancey branches. Send him an email he may have info your family line.

Another source which is rebroadcast to many other researchers is YANCEY-L@rootsweb.com an email there usually gets several responses.

I keep all the email about families and if in the future I come across a possible connection I notify by email.

Hi Dennis,

I do plan to use the coat of arms as a small logo soon I just seem to be very busy lately and since I don't have a scanner of my own I must get it done at a local photo shop ( May do that today), I could incorporate the documentation into the logo by a link etc. so please send me a copy of the document when you finish it.

Thanks Joe.

Could you make the following changes to your web page:

<http://members.aol.com/josephy412/djy/early1.htm>

I have decided to leave these files in TXT format and not convert them to HTML saving time and space I have also decided to maintain them from my site

So you can delete the versions of these files on your site if you desire.

I must thank you for all that you have done - and I DO NOT have any complaints about how you have posted this info - just thought it would be easier if I was maintaining these large, continually changing files on my site.

THANKS

Dennis

Katie Eulalia Yancy/Yancey was my first cousin. Her father and mine were brothers. Here is a partial list of the tree. She preferred the spelling Yancey however all of my uncles and our grandfather used the spelling as below. Levi Nathaniel Yancy's grandfather was Levi Yancey of VA.

                                     _Levi Nathaniel YANCY _____ _William Wesley YANCY

The name was always spelled without the "e" except for myself from my grandfather L.N. Yancy (Levi Nathaniel Yancy). My spelling came about from a misprint in the military and it was easier to fix by legally changing my birthcertificate.

I think that Eulalia came to the conclusion in her research that the spelling was changed by our grandfather L.N.Yancy. The cemetery at Johnsons Chapel in Danville Alabam contains my Grandfather L.N. Yancy and all but one of his children (Eulalias Father) and all are spelled on the Tombstones "Yancy".

Hi Dennis,

I will add the changes as soon as I get my software working. I am on the road in a trailer home and using new computers. I should have it up by tomorrow evening 1-4-2001. We left our home in San Jose California on the 26th of DEC and will be visiting several places along the way but plan to be in Galveston Texas around the middle of March. I try to pick up my email daily but I'm sure there will be some days that I miss getting it.
