Descendants of Bros. Charles; Robert; William; Joel; John Yancey

Generation No. 1

1. BROS. CHARLES; ROBERT; WILLIAM; JOEL; JOHN YANCEY was born Bef. 1642 in Wales, and died WFT Est. 1678-1733.

Notes for BROS. CHARLES; ROBERT; WILLIAM; JOEL; JOHN YANCEY:
Brothers Charles, Robert, William, Joel, and John Yancey
Born before 1642 in Wales

It is believed by most Family Historians that the Yanceys descended from four or five Welsh brothers. Sources are often inconsistent as to their names but the names Charles, Robert, William, Joel, and John are most often cited. Family lore and tradition states they came to America from Wales in 1642 with Sir William Berkeley, Colonial Governor of Virginia. They probably landed in Jamestown and settled along the James River. Almost nothing is known of the early history of these brothers and unless an unexpected discovery is made they are likely to remain in obscurity. Some reports state that one or more of the brothers were killed by Indians; however little evidence exists to support this claim. If any Colonial record did exist of their arrival into America it has apparently been lost or destroyed. It would seem unlikely any documentation of them will ever be found. As to their relationship to Sir William Berkeley, the theories range from cousins to stowaways.

Prior to 1642, no known use of the surname YANCEY has ever been recorded. Therefore it seems the surname is native to America. One onomatologist (one who studies the origin of names) states that the name may be related to the French name "Langley or l'Anglais," a name given various families in France which literally means "Englishman." Another researcher states that the name is the Anglicized spelling of the Dutch name "Jantje," meaning "Little John." Both these theories lack evidence and should not be taken too seriously.

The most credible evidence, although certainly not conclusive, is from early letters, tradition, and lore that has been handed down from generation to generation in the Yancey family. According to family lore the original surname was "Naney", a well known Welsh name of Merionethshire County. The name was apparently changed upon coming to America in Virginia. In a letter written by Samuel Shephard of Virginia, to his brother in 1805, we read the following...

My Dear Brother Robert,

"Since I last saw you, my wife has been very ill in the house of her cousin Charles Yancey. Every attention was paid to her, before I reached her side, and she was delivered of a fine boy before my coming. The boy even now resembles that old Welsh stock. Charles Yancey says he must play astrologer and prepare the horoscope of the lad... While visiting Charles Yancey's home, during the convalescence of my wife, we discussed old Welsh stock. He tells me Mr. William Evans of Cumberland County says he is Welsh, and descended from some outlandish prince of that country. Mr. Evans, who is a broadly cultivated man, says he does not believe the YANCEY name is correct, that it was NANNEY and got amended in transportation across the Atlantic. Charles Yancey had heard something of this kind from his folks, and my wife has an old arms of the Family, that Mr. Evans says belongs to the Naney Family. He says he has seen it in his father's books..."

It is known that members of the Nanney family of Wales also came to America during the 17th century. Robert Nanney sailed on the "INCREASE" in 1635 and settled in Massachusetts. Hugh Nanney is found living in Virginia in 1689 in the James River area. The Yancey/Nanney story seems to be present in later generations of branches of the Nanney family. A member of the Nanney family in Virginia says:

"From my youth I have always heard that the names were the same (my father was quite old when I was born and he had retained many of the old legends handed down mouth-to-mouth) and I ran into the same information once when inquiring at South Hill, Virginia about the Nanneys... The people there... mentioned the Nanneys and the Yanceys in one breath and shrugged when questioned about it, saying 'They are the same family... kissing cousins'."

Sometime around 1930, a Welsh genealogist named O. E. Ruck was hired to do research on the Nanney family with the hope of proving the connection of the YANCEY and NANNEY families. Through the investigation of Mr. Ruck and with the help of others it was determined that the Nanney Coat of Arms was nearly identical to the Arms held by members of the Yancey family. Both Arms bear a blue lion rampant facing left on a gold shield. The Yancey Arms, however, had added a motto in French...

"Ne Touchez Pas Le Chat Sans Avoir Le Gant" which means:
"Touch Not the Cat Without the Glove."

There are certainly other versions of the Yancey Coat of Arms as well as the Nanney Arms. While this may seem confusing it would be in keeping with the Rules of Heraldry. A coat of arms was almost always issued to an individual and not to a family, as is commonly thought. Under most heraldic rules, only the first sons of first sons of the original recipient may legally bear their ancestor's arms. Younger sons may use a version of their fathers' arms, but it was required that the arms be "differenced" or changed slightly as to not be confused with the original coat of arms. If the possessor of the arms (called an "armiger") dies without male heirs, his daughter, if married to a possessor of arms, may combine her father's arms with her husband's arms. This combining of two arms is called "impaling." Therefore, an arms after several generations can be very different from that of the original recipient and bearer of the coat of arms.

Over the years some researchers have explored the theory that the Yanceys may have been French Huguenots. The Huguenots were French Protestants persecuted for their belief in the teachings of Calvin. It is known that the Yanceys were associated with various families of Huguenot origin namely Dumas, Dabney and Mullins. The French motto found on various renditions of the Yancey Arms is one of the few indications that the origin of the Yancey name might be something other than Welsh. It is more likely that this French influence was from a later generation and the arms differed. There is little indication that the Yanceys themselves were Huguenots. In 1711 Charles Yancey's name is recorded among the vestry records of St. Paul's Parish in New Kent County, Virginia. Charles was most likely affiliated with the "Established Church of Virginia", an Anglican church with ties to the countries of England and Wales. While the Yanceys seem to have been a religiously devout family there is no evidence that they were ever under any religious persecution.

Notes for CHARLES YANCEY:
Charles Yancey and Miss (Mary?) Bartlett
About 1675-1745

The earliest valid documentation of a YANCEY is found on a list of land owners called a Quit Rent Roll. In 1704 Charles Yancey is listed on the Quit Rent Roll for King William County, Virginia owning 100 acres. The actual relationship of this Charles to the immigrant brothers is not clear. However, if the story of the brothers is true, he would most likely be a grandson to one of the five. Most researchers are also in agreement that around 1704, a Charles Yancey married Miss Bartlett. Some sources record her name as Mary. It would seem that Charles and Mary continued living in the area that would later become Hanover and Louisa Counties, formed in 1720 and 1742 respectively. These counties were formed from New Kent and King William Counties. One source records their marriage on January 14, 1704, although no known documentation exists to support this claim.

Family tradition has it that Charles of King William County was the son of an earlier Charles Yancey and his wife Mary Leighton. It has also been reported that Mary Leighton was thought to be a descendant of Alexander Leighton who was cruelly persecuted for his religious teachings. However, after centuries of searching, no evidence has been found to confirm or even support the above information. It should not be considered true until such documentation is discovered.

In 1722 Charles of King William County and his wife Mary Bartlett lived and owned land between North Anna and Little River. Charles later received land grants totaling 448 acres in Hanover County. These grants were issued on behalf of King George II between 1725 and 1730. The last date Charles was known to be alive was 1745 when he deeded a negro slave to his son Robert. No will has ever been found for Charles but it is believed he died shortly after the deed of 1745. There has been very little information recorded about Mary Bartlett. No birth or death dates are known for her. She did, however, raise a large family. Mary gave birth to seven sons: John, Jeconias, Robert, Richard, James, Archelaus, and Charles.

Notes for Richard (son of Charles) YANCEY:

Richard Yancey and Mary Bolling
About 1705-1780
Richard Yancey, son of Charles of King William County and Mary Bartlett, was born in the early 1700’s in Virginia. In the mid 1730’s, Richard is found living in Hanover County, Virginia. It is here that Richard probably met his wife. He and Mary were most likely married about 1735. It is believed that Mary may have been Mary Bolling, although no documentation is known to exist to confirm her maiden name. Their home in Hanover County would have been in the area that would become Louisa County in 1742.

The principle source of support for the family was the farm. Mary blessed Richard with ten children. This was of great importance to the yeoman planter, for a large family would translate into "free" farm labor. Land was easily acquired in America compared to the difficulty small farmers would have in England and Europe. In 1753 Richard sold their plantation of 250 acres to John Snelson and bought lands around and on Grassy Creek. The purchases were a part of the land granted to Drury Stith, Henry Morris, and Michael Cadet Young. Grassy Creek was located on the Virginia / North Carolina border in Lunenburg County but would become Mecklenburg County in 1764. Richard, Mary, eight sons and one daughter relocated and settled in their new home. They apparently settled quickly as Richard appears in the Vestry records of Cumberland Parish, Lunenburg County, in 1754 and their tenth child, Zachariah was born June 25, 1754 in the same county.

The late 1770’s and early 1780’s would have been a most difficult time for this pioneer family. The Revolutionary War was upon them and five of their sons are known to have been involved in the conflict. Their son Lewis was a private in the 8th Virginia Regiment and is thought to have been killed in action in 1777. Absalom was a private in the 14th Virginia Regiment in 1777 and in 1779 he is recorded with the 10th Virginia Regiment. In 1779, Richard transferred land on Beaver Creek to his son Charles. This may have been at a time when Richard was in ill health as his will was probated in 1780 in Mecklenburg County. Mary and all ten of their children were mentioned in the will. Two years after the death of her husband, Mary lost another son. The cause of Heczekiah's death in 1782 is unknown. He had served the Patriot cause in the Revolutionary War and was a member of Caldwell's Rangers in South Carolina in 1773. In Heczekiah's will he mentioned his brother Rueben (not one of the sons listed in the will of Richard). This has caused some confusion as to the exact make-up of the family. However, it is generally believed that Richard's son Joseph and this Rueben are the same person. Perhaps his name was Joseph Rueben Yancey. In 1779, Joseph (Rueben?) was a Quartermaster Sergeant, 3rd Regiment in South Carolina. He seems to have died before 1790. Zachariah's military record suggests he was a surveyor.

Mary continued to lived in Mecklenburg for several years after Richard's death. In 1782, records indicate Mary also supported the patriots of the Revolutionary War by supplying beef to the militia. She died in 1795 in Mecklenburg County and her last will and testament is recorded there. In her will Mary refers to all of her children except Lewis, Heczekiah, and Joseph.

Notes for MARY (BOLLING?) YANCEY:
James Griffin and James Griffin, Sr. are listed as witnesses on Mary (Bolling?) Yancey’s will. The Griffins owned adjoining land with Robert Yancey in Mecklenburg County VA. This could be the Griffin Family from which Penelope Griffin Yancey (born 1807) came.

Notes for Robert Yancey, Sr.:
Robert Yancey, Sr. and Philadelphia Jones About 1744-1818

Robert Yancey, son of Richard and Mary (Bolling?) Yancey, was born in Louisa County, Virginia about 1744. He married Mrs. Philadelphia (Jones) Griffin, widow of Francis Griffin, about 1768 in Virginia. Francis Griffin died about three years earlier in 1765. It is likely that the Yanceys and Griffins had been neighbors and this is how Robert and Philadelphia met. Land Book "E" of Mecklenburg County describes 400 acres on the "Branches of Buffalo and Aarons Creek" belonging to Robert Yancey and adjoining Griffin and Cameron.
Richard had come to Mecklenburg (then Lunenburg County) with his family around the age of ten. Philadelphia had been born there about 1743 and was the daughter of John Jones and Pholesia Pugh. They must have felt very much at home in that southern Virginia region, for they raised eleven children and remained there until their deaths. Not much is known about this family, for most of the recorded evidence of them is from the Tax Digest of Mecklenburg County. Robert did record a will which was probated in 1819. Philadelphia predeceased her husband by nearly ten years. Her death occurred August 31, 1809. She and Robert are buried in Mecklenburg County, Virginia.

The children of Robert Yancey and Philadelphia Jones were:

John Yancey: married Mary Hamblin
Richard Yancey: married Mary Walton
Mary Yancey: married Robert Williamson
(Philadelphia) Yancey: married John Tillotson

Notes for ROBERT YANCEY, JR.: Robert Yancey, Jr. and Agnes Wilkinson About 1775-1855

Robert Yancey, son of the senior Robert Yancey and Philadelphia Jones Griffin, was born about 1775 in Mecklenburg County, Virginia. He married Agnes Wilkinson on October 10, 1796 in Mecklenburg County. Agnes was the daughter of William Wilkinson and Sarah Franklin. To better place this family in a historical timeline, their marriage would have occurred during the closing years of George Washington's presidency. It would seem that Robert and Agnes grew up in the years of the Revolutionary War. It was also a time in which the population was on the move. Four of their six children left Virginia to settle in other states. Sally and John stayed in Virginia. Robert (son of Robert Jr.) and his brother James went to Georgia, and Lewis settled in Mississippi. Herricott moved to North Carolina after marrying her second cousin, Richard L. Yancey. Richard was the son of Absalom Yancey and his wife (name unknown).

Robert Yancey was a farmer. Most, if not all, of his sons followed in his footsteps and seem to have farmed most of their lives. Several letters written between the family members in the 1840s and 1850s have survived.

[Note: Some punctuation has been added to assist reader. Letters are not corrected for spelling. The letters] were usually addressed to one of the brothers and then forwarded to the other. They were addressed to either the Marthaasville (Atlanta) or Rough & Ready (Forest Park) Post Office.

"Dear Children I take the opportunity to write a few lines to you both... to in form you all that we are all well at this time thanks be to God for the same. hoping when these few lines reach your hands they may find you all in the same state of health... Richard and Harriett wishes to be remembered to you all. Harriets got five children, three boys and two girls... it takes a great deal to bread them... Luis is in a bad fix he is going under the doctor... I want you both to write to me how you all are and how you are making out. Nothing more only remain your father and mother until death.

Robert Yancey and Agness his wife
I receive your letter that you wrote 28 September [1845]"

Some of the letters dealt with the price of farm goods in the different areas of the country in which they were living...

"...I will say something to you now about the times in this country. everthing to eat is high here. [flower is worth 8 to 9 dol per pc] corn is worth $5.00 per bar, and hard to get at that. people that has got it dont like to sell it. wheat is worth $1.60 per bu. bacon from 16cts to 18cts per lb coffee and sugar is about the same. corn crops are sorry then I ever saw them. wheat was very short. bugs are very numerous and we have had a long dry spell..."

Other letters dealt with the settling of Robert's estate.

"...I am very much troubled for the lack of my lather... I want you to write to mee how you are getting on in the world and tell Brother Robert I want to hear from him. I want you to write to me when you expect to go to lathers and I want to go my self when you do. John wrot to mee that he and Richard thought best to let the estate stand until fall... Dear Mother she is destitute of a friend now. No done to console her nor provide for her... She is never cut of my mind and there fore it troubles mee. ...all I can do is to try and meet him in a better world..."

Lewis B. Yancey
May the 14 1853

Apparently, Robert had at least a few slaves. One slave, named Starling, was purchased from the estate by James and Robert. However, before he was fully paid for, Starling died.

"...I was very sorry to here of the loosf of your negro. It seems... you have very bad luck... Mr Graves owes [you for work Starling did] a little... I dont know exactly the amount yet but I going to find out... and after paying for his coften and other little expences what is left I will send it own to you. Starling has a suit of Kentucky jene close here and a sort of over coft and I want to know what I must do with them? his children has asked me for them and I told them I did not have any rite to give them away without your consent... John says you are due the estate seventy 1,50 [71.50] for Starling..."

Richard E. Yancey

"I seated myself to write to you once more... I wrote to you about the death of Starling. he died the fourth Saterday in May... people think now he died with the small pox for old Caty Cousion was sick with it and died with it and Starling wint to see her and so did some of Kiah Griffins family wint to see her but nobody didint know what kind of deses it was then until after Starling died and then Kiah's whole family and some of the free negros was taken with it and then the Drs pronounced it the small pox... John F. Yancey wants to know which is going to settle for Starling, you or Robert... he has not settle the instate yet..."
