Dear William and Arvilla:

Glad to get your letter ~~XXXXXX~~ and thanks for sending the notices re. Orley's death

Its good that Paula is settled for the time at least--and where they must shoulder their own responsibility. "Steamboat Springs" quite a name ought to be a pretty place.

Know David and Lynn will be glad to the completion of their school classes by Christmas--to have the time for taking care of their families.

Glad you got the book and Pin o.k. I've gotten a lot of good from Rogers book--and glad that the pins are now made of copper that does not tarnish.

Am inclosing a "Yancey" folder--of course the Bartlet Yancey is not in our direct line, but I'm interested and collecting all the data I can about the name Yancey--have found so many places by that name ^{and} a Hotel, a Library, a racing horse, Bertha has a picture of a "USS Yancey" Cargo Ship entering the ice fields enroute to Little America

Christmas is practically here--and how am I going to get my cards ready--Guess can get most out in the time left, but will really have to rush along with other things--But thats always the way when Christmas time comes around.

Love to all
Alice
