Philemon Yancey

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War record of Philemon Yancey.

The data which follow are found in the papers on file in pension claim, S. 1274, based upon service in the Revolutionary War of Philemon Yancey.

Philemon Yancey was born in Culpeper County, Virginia, and lived there with his father, Philemon Yancey, at the time of the Revolutionary War; the name of his mother is not shown, nor the date of his birth.

Philemon Yancey enlisted in 1779, as substitute for his father, and served eighteen months in Captain William Stanton's company. Colonel John Stubblefield's Virginia regiment, during which he marched south, was in the battle of Camden and later marched with prisoners to New Kent County, Virginia, where he was discharged. He enlisted shortly after his return to Culpeper County, Virginia, served as a private in Captain Thomas Mackwell's company, Colonel Edmonds' Virginia regiment, was in the Siege of Yorktown and was discharged shortly after the surrender of Lord Cornwallis.

He continued to reside in Culpeper County, Virginia, for some time after the Revolutionary War, then moved to Caroline County, that state, and resided eight years, and in 1814, moved to Kentucky; he settled in Franklin County, Kentucky.

Philemon Yancey was allowed pension on his application executed March 11, 1853, at which time he resided in Franklin County, Kentucky. He was then seventy-seven years of age. He died May 26, 1838.

Philemon Yancey made no reference to wife or children. He referred to his uncle, Robert Yancey, who was a captain of dragoons in the Revolutionary War.

In order to obtain the name of the person to whom the last payment of pension was made, you should address The Comptroller General, General Accounting Office, this city, and furnish the following data:
