

Henry Jackson Evans
w/ wife

Maudie Yancy
Child - Elmer Evans

About 1912

Around Alpine,
Clark County, AR

August 9, 1989

Alynn remembered Susan Holcomb, Homer Holcomb and himself, (Alynn) took Hector the horse and crossed the river at Albert Ford, not sheets ford - and went over to Point Cedar and visited with W. J. Lookadoo -

The reason Alynn could remember this so well is because when they returned Henry Evans had died at Walter Yancy's place. Henry was inside the chimney cleaning out the brained timbers and the fumes fumes had + gases had killed him.

He was buried on Sunday - Alynn + everyone was to return on Monday - of course they knew nothing about it - Susan was very sad when they returned.

Susan had stayed with a Mrs. Kates or Mrs. Yates.

Alynn was probably around 6 - + he remembered Susan being very hurt.
Susan really liked Henry Evans.

Comment * Alynn - Homer were Newcom Holcomb's kids
After their mother, Melvina died, their grandmother was taking them to see their grandfather,

William Jonathan Lookadoo, in Point Cedar.
